

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Betty M. Wells has been employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Fort Meade, South Dakota, as a secretary in Rehabilitation Medicine Service; and,

WHEREAS, Betty has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Betty is a devoted wife to her husband, George, a good mother to their six children, and a loving grandmother to her eight grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, On February 24, after 24 years of service to the medical center and this great state, Betty is retiring and will be selling real estate and starting a secretarial service; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 24, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
